

2.01pm BST

Yesterday's opening stage to the 96th edition of the tour had a pinch of everything. A hot day on the streets of Naples played host to several crashes, a brave break from Australian Cameron Wurf and a thrilling finale as Mark Cavendish ditched his flailing Pharma Quick-Step teammates with 100m remaining to take victory on the line from a visibly distraught Elia Viviani. Vintage Cav.

Mark Cavendish celebrates his Stage One victory Photograph: Adam Davy/PA

Updated at 2.04pm BST